Dr. N. de Pietro has been an instructor on the staff of the University of Toronto for the last three years. During the year 1911-12 he gave courses in Spanish, during 1912-13 in Provencal, and during the Session also in Italian. Professor Fraser, the head of the department, has spoken to me favourably of his work, and all that I have heard of him of Dr de Pietro leads me to believe that he is a courteous gentleman of good scholarship who wins the respect of his students & colleagues.

President Falconer,
University of Toronto

Dear Sir,

You kindly gave me last year the enclosed certificate. Would you be so good as to let me have a similar copy brought up to date? It will be necessary to add that I have now been teaching three years in the University and that besides the course in Spanish and Provençal as there referred to I have this year been giving a course in the Early Italian Lyric.

I should be very glad if you could let me have this some time during this week.

Thanking you in anticipation

I remain, Sir,

yours very truly

Nicola di Pietro
